

Let's take a trip to see...

NEW YORK CITY BALLET

CARNIVAL OF THE ANIMALS: With delightful narration written by John Lithgow, Carnival of the Animals imagines a schoolboy's night in the Museum of Natural History and the outlandish museum residents who come to life as versions of his teachers, classmates, and family members.

TARANTELLA: The virtuosic pas de deux Tarantella showcases two pyrotechnical dancers in an ever growing profusion of steps.

TSCHAIKOVSKY PAS DE DEUX: A virtuosic ballet, Tchaikovsky Pas de Deux is brief, beautiful, and beloved – an adrenaline rush for both dancers and audiences.

STARS AND STRIPES: Set to Sousa's buoyant marches and dressed in Karinska's delightful all-American costumes, Stars and Stripes contains as much pure dancing as many full-length classical ballets.

DATE: March 3rd
@ 3pm
